HE KNEW MULTI WHO

"Wouldn't old man Multi, who made the Multigraph, turn over in his grave if he could see her desecrating that machine?" said "Phil" Philipouski vesierday afternoon.

The "her" was Miss Willie Lovett, and the machine happened to be the property of the corporation commission. Miss Lovett's classification at the capital is assistant clerk of the supreme court, and multigraphs have never been included in the curriculum of her corespondence school. "Phil" needs no explanation; he is chronic around the state house, and is labelled in the directory as official day's work or play at a cost of not over five cents. An ideal Summer food. Serve with sliced bananas, berries fabelled in the directory as official reporter for the corporation commission.

Miss Lovett, as has been previously stated, had never before clashed with a multigraph. Having some work which needed its professional services, she borrowed the use of the commission's machine for the afternoon. Phil, who is a professional multigrapher, in fact holds the indoor record for multigraphing for the state of Arizona was considerably neeved. of Arizona, was considerably peeved when she refused his profier of as-sistance. From that time thence he started to trag about how much he knew about a multigraph. He start-ed with Old Man Multi detailed his od with Old Man Multi, detailed his acquaintance with him and went down the family line of the Multis, including Miss Multiform, old John H. Multiple and Henry P. Multitude. He also told of how he once went on a picnic with Miss Elizabeth Multicodinous, at which affair young Cyrus Multiplier fell into the lake. He claimed acquaintance with L. M. Multifarious, but this was denied by Jack Gavin who mat him on the coast.

The office of Secretary of State Sidney P. Osborn, issued 859 automobile licenses during the month of July. The count was made yesterday showing that more machines were licensed in that month than at any other time, with the exception of the annual rush after the first of the finalty concluded that the more he finalty concluded that the more he Phil had to acknowledge that, and he finally concluded that the more he multiplied his yarns, the more multimadder she was getting, all of which didn't agree with her disposition, nor serve to maintain the dignity of the
